There was once a magician that saved Sky Garden, fearing his strength, those in power attempted to make him into royalty to control him.
However. Magician didn't desire that. and so he retired in the countryside.
and immersed himself in magic research 200 years later, in the present day,
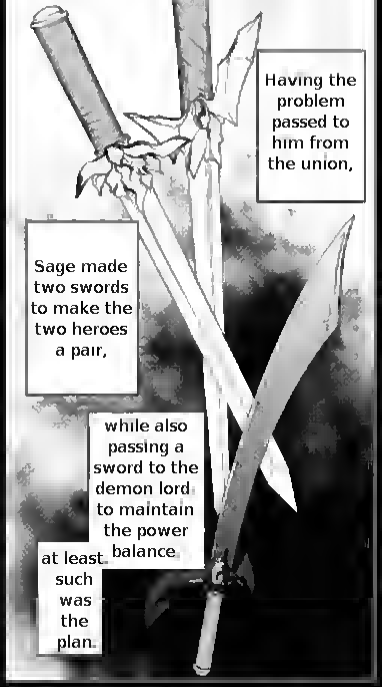
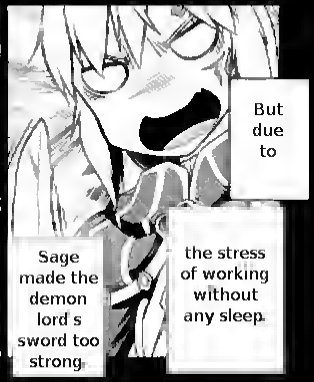
no one remembers that he was a hero,
and some have begun to call him the sage of the forest



Having the problem passed to him from the union,
Sage made two swords to make the two heroes a pair,
while also passing a sword to the demon lord to maintain the power balance.
at least such was the plan.

*Refer to chapter 1.



the two heroes would have to obtain the swords themselves
create two stronger swords
and create a dungeon to leave them in
That is the summary of the events leading to now.
Prince came up with a sinister (clever) plan
While Sage was panicking,

【謎】大変なことに…なったんだが～中継・空中庭園世界より～

I said that but...
I really overdid it with the demon lord's sword,
so I can't just randomly make something,
I'll have to do this well
Hmmm...
Let's make a new recipe, starting with the specs we'll need...
The original swords had fire and water attributes but to combat darkness we'll need holy
The faded beast and The white blossom beast should be compatible
To supplement the attributes we can add the pale egg beast the cheap shear
But just plain old holy won't be enough along with the pale red beast the deep indigo beast and some minerals for holy we'll need the white moon dragon and leaf dragon
I'm gonna be up all night writing this,
and tomorrow I'll be gathering the materials.

Alright,
Let's do this!
Done!
Next,
gather the materials!

Woah!
I almost . . . .
Done!

128 Retired hero: Sage
Wooo!
Day 3
I've finished the two swords!
A splendid job if I say so myself.
They're both level 8, PERFECT!

While I'd like to just admire them,
I have just two days to make the dungeon.
I'm running out of time!
The swords took too long to make!

129 Watches over heroes: Student
Oh, Sage is giving us a report.
Seems the stress is starting to take a toll on him.
But hey, the swords are done!

Let's do this!
but will I have enough strength for it?
This won't involve as much thinking as the swords.
I

Day 4
Woohoo!
I managed to make a large dungeon in the wasteland in just one day!
I might have a talent for this!
Though I made the map for it while I worked on the swords
But boy is it big
Looking at how the heroes are moving, maybe I'll add a little more...

131 Watches over heroes Student

And there's the dungeon!
You didn't stay up all night and mess up something again, did you?
Are you feeling alright?

ゴゥ!!
ス!
ビクッ!

heroes
Welcome,
You've grown stronger since last time
Go, and with your powers, obtain those swords
It's said that in the depths lie treasured swords that none have been able to obtain before
In the wasteland to the east, you will find the abyss labyrinth
.....
However,
if you've returned here, I suppose you were unable to defeat the demon lord?

132 Retired hero Sage

Hehe Hehehe

Day 6

I gave the two heroes an nice little speech and tossed them into that dungeon!

I'm off to bed!

Guud Mait!

133 Retired hero Student

Guud Mait!

Were you up all night? lol

What's..
Huh?
Woah there,
it's midnight, I really should go to bed
I need some sleep...
.....
Alright, I understand.
for now, I'd like to get some sleep.

134 Retired hero Sage

Damn it!

Day 7

The two heroes came back crying about the dungeon being too hard!

I'll teach them some magic...

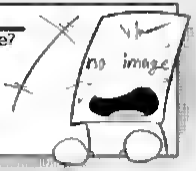
I just want to sleep...

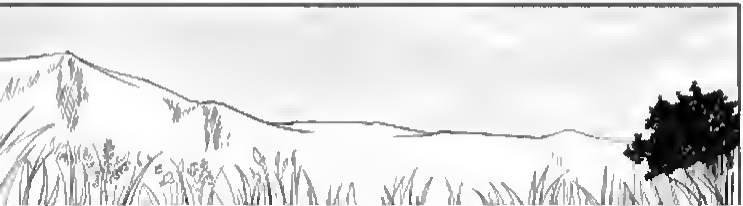
135 Retired hero Student

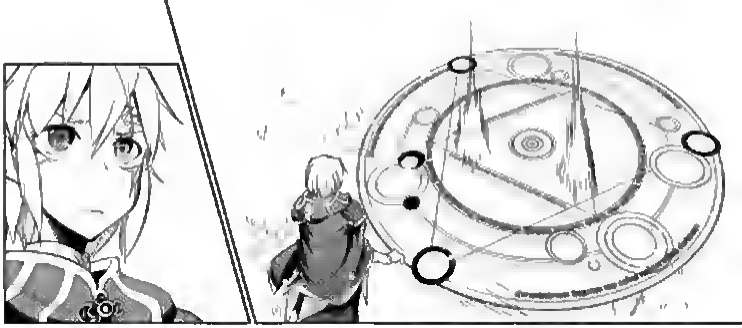
lol Just what kind of dungeon did you make?

All-nighters are scaaaary!

And because of that, the two heroes are now the sage's disciples!







136 Retired hero: Sage
Day 12
The spartan magic training paid off, and the heroes got the twin swords
With a smile appropriate for a sage, I teleported them to somewhere near the demon lord s castle
Sage of the forest mode is odd... It s a bit of acting important despite it being embarrassing
Normally I don t talk to people, yet when I do, it s like that, it feels kind of creepy

!?
What is it?
